

Meet the Heritage Teachers

Janet Taylor, Director

Janet has been the Director of Heritage Preschool since 2009. She graduated from California State University at San Luis Obispo with a degree in Home Economics with an emphasis in Child Development. Janet came to Heritage from Girl Scouts where she was the Community Services Director. Janet's husband, Eddie, has worked in construction for the phone company, AT&T, for over 40 years. They have four grown children and three grandchildren. The two younger children, Brian and Lauren, are Heritage graduates!

Gwen Taylor

Gwen is the 4 & 5 year old teacher. She has been teaching at Heritage since 1997. She has a degree in Elementary Education from McMurray College and has also taught 1st-3rd grades. Gwen is married to Tommy Taylor, a petroleum engineer. They have 2 daughters, Katy and Emily, both students at Texas Tech. Their son Ben is a student at Midland High School.

Danielle Brown

Danielle is our 3 & 4 year old teacher. She joined Heritage in 2009. She is married to Josh Brown and is the proud mom of Colten & Carter. She is attending UTPB where she is working on her degree in Education. Danielle has wanted to teach since she was a child and is very excited to be at Heritage.

Marsha Brown

Marsha works with our students in the afternoons. She has worked with children for many years both at Heritage and other Mother's Day Out programs. She joined Heritage in 2007. She is married to Ken Brown, a pharmacist with MMH. Her son, Christopher, also attended Heritage.

Tiffany Patterson

Tiffany works with our students in the afternoons and is our substitute teacher for both classes. She joined Heritage in the fall of 2011. Tiffany is a student at UTPB working on her degree in Education.
